Preliminary Asset & Liability Scan

NEXT STEP

Identify known bank accounts, real estate, and major debts. This data is critical for estimating estate value on the petition and determining bond requirements.

Secure the Property

Change locks, forward mail, and ensure the home is protected from theft or damage.

Upload Photos

Identify Minor Beneficiaries

OPTIONAL

Review all heirs and identify any beneficiaries under age 18. Minors require special court protection through a guardian ad litem.

Protect Minors

Evaluate Primary Residence Succession

OPTIONAL

If the estate consists primarily of a primary residence valued under the state's simplified threshold, you may qualify for a simplified succession process.

Check Eligibility

Initial Property Protection

Ensure the decedent's residence is secured, mail is forwarded, and assets are protected from loss or damage.

Notify Social Security Administration

Report the death to stop benefit payments and prevent overpayment recovery.

Verify Creditor Notice Exemption

Surviving spouses may be exempt from standard creditor notice if they assume personal liability for decedent's debts.

🔗 State spousal exemption statute

FIDUCIARY RISK: Minnesota Statutory Debt Priority

Assess creditor claims and potential debts under Minnesota statutory priority order (MN Stat. §524.3-805).

Publish Notice to Creditors (Optional but Recommended - MN) OPTIONAL

While publication is not mandatory, failure to publish may extend creditor exposure beyond the 4-month bar. Publication triggers the 4-month claim cutoff under MN Stat. §524.3-801.

📎 Upload Draft notice text (as applicable)

📎 Upload Case/filing details (if applicable)

Notify Known Creditors

Notify known creditors as appropriate and document your outreach (e.g., banks, credit cards, medical providers). Requirements and best practices vary by jurisdiction.

📎 Upload Creditor notice template (if used)

📎 Upload Creditor contact list / notice log

International Fiduciary: W-8BEN/W-8CE Assessment

For non-resident executors or beneficiaries, determine U.S. tax withholding requirements and treaty eligibility.

International Fiduciary: ITIN Acquisition Protocol

Identify foreign beneficiaries without a SSN/ITIN. Coordinate acquisition of U.S. Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers to avoid maximum backup withholding on distributions.

Evaluate Estate Solvency

Compare total estate assets to total liabilities, taxes, and administration/funeral expenses to determine whether the estate appears solvent or insolvent.

Monitor State-Specific Creditor Exposure Period

Monitor the creditor exposure timeline applicable in your jurisdiction. The trigger event and timing vary by state and case type. Avoid final distributions until creditor risk is appropriately managed (often by holding reserves and documenting claim handling).

Monitor Minnesota Creditor Deadline

Minnesota Creditor Deadline: Claims are barred 4 months after first publication of notice OR 1 month after mailed notice to a known creditor, whichever is later (MN Stat. §524.3-801).

Review Submitted Claims

Examine each creditor claim for validity, amount, and supporting documentation.

Review Claims

Document Claim Evaluation & Decision

Evaluate each creditor claim and document your decision (allowed, partially allowed, disputed/rejected) with supporting rationale and evidence. Claims handling procedures vary by state and case type.

Dispute or Reject Claims (If Applicable) LOCKED

If a claim is incorrect, unsupported, or disputed, follow your state's procedure to dispute, reject, or negotiate the claim. Keep written documentation of the basis and supporting evidence.

Pay Approved Claims (By Statutory Priority) LOCKED

Pay valid debts in the statutory priority order applicable in your jurisdiction (commonly including administration costs, taxes, secured debts, then unsecured claims). Document each payment and retain receipts.

☐ Document Proof of Creditor Notice (If Applicable)

If your jurisdiction requires proof of creditor notice (publication and/or direct notice), retain and submit the required proof in the format your court or process expects. Even when not required to file, maintaining proof supports a defensible administration record.
